

Concesión Vial de los Llanos S.A.S expresses its commitment to interested parties in matters of safety and health at work, environmental management for sustainable development and satisfaction through compliance with requirements during the development of design, construction, and operation activities. Maintaining the roads are a part of the Malla Vial del Meta project through the following guidelines:

Provide optimal levels of operational service.

- Maintain road infrastructure in a timely manner.
- Execute the construction phases and ensure compliance with technical and contractual specifications.
- Identify and eliminate hazards, evaluate and assess risks, and establish controls to reduce OSH risks.
- Manage activities for health protection, promote and prevent accidents, incidents and occupational diseases.
- Promote consultation and participation of collaborators.
- Manage road safety to prevent accidents.
- Prevent pollution and protect biodiversity and ecosystems.
- Provide talent for the comprehensive management of activities.
- Provide resources and work environment for the execution of processes.
- Ensure continuous improvement of all processes and the control of operational risks.
- Manage compliance of legal and other requirements of interested parties.
- Contribute to the well-being and socioeconomic development of the region.