

Concesión Vial de los Llanos S.A.S expresses its commitment to safety and health at work, environmental management for sustainable development, and the satisfaction of its stakeholders, during the execution of activities of Design, construction, operation and maintenance of roads that are part of Malla Vial del Meta, implementing the following activities:

- Providing optimal levels of service in road operation.
- Attending to maintenance of road infrastructure in a timely manner.
- Executing the works of the construction phase, ensuring compliance with technical and contractual specifications.
- Preventing pollution, as well as the protection of biodiversity and ecosystems.
- Managing road safety to prevent accidents for all road actors.
- Identifying and eliminating hazards; evaluating and valuing the risks and establishing the respective controls, to reduce the risks for the safety and health at work.
- Managing activities for health protection, promotion and prevention of accidents, incidents and occupational diseases.
- Promoting the consultation and participation of collaborators.
- Supplying competent human talent for the integral management of the activities.
- Ensuring the necessary resources and environment for the execution of the processes.
- Directing the performance of the processes and their context towards the continuous improvement of all processes and the control of operational risks.
- Managing compliance with legal and other requirements of interested parties.
- Contributing to the welfare and socio-economic development of the region.